March 21st through March 31st

The 5th Avenue Theatre Presents: Waitress

Sara Bareilles's pop-rock musical is filled with scrumptious pie--so much pie--and is one of the most famous musicals from the past decade. It's a story of friendship, chosen family, and embracing love from unexpected places. Jenna dreams of leaving behind a life she didn't imagine for herself, and the announcement of a baking contest could be her ticket out. Supported by her best friends, Jenna chooses to open her heart to the messier parts of life, which certainly don't come with a recipe.

03/11 - 03/30 @ The 5th Avenue Theatre

More Events On The Back...

“Cinerama” Is Back!

Cinerama (a.k.a. SIFF Cinema Downtown)—this historic single-screen theater is one of only two operating cinemas in the world with the capability of screening three-strip Cinerama films on its epic 97-foot curved screen consisting of 2,000 inch-wide vertical strips. Or, just pop in for a bag of their famous Chocolate Popcorn! Now Playing: *Mickey 17. From the Academy Award-winning writer/director of Parasite, Bong Joon Ho, comes his next groundbreaking cinematic experience. The unlikely hero, Mickey Barnes (Robert Pattinson) has found himself in the extraordinary circumstance of working for an employer who demands the ultimate commitment to the job... to die, over and over, for a living.

PNW Ballet Presents: Emergence

“Like the best works of art, it transforms its audience, as well as its participants,” says The Seattle Times of Crystal Pite’s Emergence. This mesmerizing piece is accompanied by Jerome Robbins’ intimate Afternoon of a Faun, Marco Goecke’s solo work Mopey, and a World Premiere from PNB dancer and choreographer Price Suddarth. Each of these choreographers pushes the boundaries of dance with their own unique vision, and are especially remarkable when juxtaposed with one another.

03/14 - 03/23 @ McCaw Hall at Seattle Center
